

The General Nathanael Greene Chapter of the Sons of the Revolution in the State of Georgia

October 4, 2011

The Annual General Greene Birthday Luncheon was held on August 20 at the Capital City Club, Brookhaven in Atlanta.

Twenty six chapter members and officers, three guests/ prospective members, three State Society Officers and speaker, Charles F. Price attended the noon meeting and enjoyed the renowned Capital City Club "Taste of the South" buffet.

The Birthday Luncheon meeting was preceded by the Board Meeting of the General Nathanael Green Officers.

The Awards Committee Chairman, 2nd VP Ken Zeliff, Jr. presented the Chapter's response to a membership requests for an outside activity to "Keep Alive the Spirit of 1776" throughout the year. The beautifully framed Rembrandt Peale's Porthole Portrait of George Washington will be available as a gift to schools throughout Georgia by individual Chapter members. Two members have already succeeded in placing a portrait in an Atlanta and a NW Georgia school. The Chapter will supply a bronze plate to hang below the portrait:"Presented by the General Nathanael Greene Chapter of the Sons of the Revolution in the State of Georgia."

Registrar Paul East reported on the Jr. Membership and Legacy program and the opportunity for the membership to enroll their sons or grandsons for future membership in the Sons of the Revolution.

Author Charles F. Price of Burnville, North Carolina spoke eloquently on "Nathanael Greene: The Forgotten Year." Or, as Mr. Price noted, the War that the South won! At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Price presented each member with a personally autographed copy of his novel, "Nor the Battle to the Strong."

Mr. Ron Freeman, Georgia State Society Secretary presented an update on the State Society activities. The Chapter is always appreciative of the representative of Georgia State Society members. Chaplain, Guyton McCall gave the Benediction and President Bob Evans presented the 2012-2013 Yearbooks before adjourning the meeting.

The next meeting of the Chapter will be on March 17, 2012, a Black Tie evening affair with wives at the Ansley Golf Club in Atlanta.

Registrar's Report

State of Georgia B.O.M. Meeting

Mr George Wright has submitted his application for membership which has been checked and found acceptable by the GNG Registrar. The application package was forwarded to the State Registrar on August 3, 2011 for further processing and assignment of State and General Society numbers if found acceptable.

Mr. Edward Vaught, Jr.'s proposal for membership has been found acceptable by the GNG BOM and sent to Savannah to be placed on today's State BOM agenda. Upon the State approval, Mr. Edward Vaught, Jr. will be sent an application package.

Mr. William Harris attended our annual meeting on August 20, 2011, where he expressed his desire to be reinstated as a dual member between the Virginia State Society and the Georgia State Society. He also wishes to become a member of the GNG Chapter. Mr. Harris has been proposed for membership and found to be acceptable by the GNG BOM. Research of the GA State records were carried out by our Mr. Andy Blalock and Mr. Ron Freeman to determine that Mr. Harris left the GA State Society in good standing.

We are awaiting completed application data on the following gentlemen:

1. Mr. Clayton Henson Farnham
2. Mr. Joe Meyer

The following gentleman has attended a GNG meeting and is in the process of being proposed:

1. Mr. Al Adams

Mr. David Humphrey's name is being removed from our list of potential applicants as per his sponsor Mr. Wood Hughes.

Dr. Thomas Sherwood Winters, III's name is being removed from our list of potential applicants as per his sponsor Mr. Ed Conley.

Our membership count stands at 50 active members and one junior member.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald Paul East, Registrar
General Nathanael Greene Chapter, SOR
